

Sept. 8, 1942.

Mr. George Wibecan,
434 Pulaski St.,
Brooklyn, N. Y.

Dear Friend:

I am writing to enclose the check for the work done by your man, and want to thank you a million times for securing him for me and for all the other many ways in which you cooperated.

I feel the game was very successful when you consider we only had one week to really publicize it, and such opposition as the Dodgers and Giants in New York, plus the Police and Firemen at Yankee Stadium and the big affair in Central Park. You people who helped put it over must have been working very hard, and I want to thank you again.

Please send me a bill for expenses incurred, and I hope I will see you real soon. Why don't you make a trip to Newark sometime. I will admit there isn't much to come here for unless it was to make a visit. If you don't get here, I will try hard to come to Brooklyn soon.

Again please accept my sincere thanks.

Very truly yours,

EM:CCJ